“ "The way I see it if I understand you correctly" is a phrase I often heard. Ms. Gail was a lady of wisdom with very little words. Ner' did I EVER hear her speak unkind, slander, gossip or untruths of others. SHE LOVED ministering to women and as it turns out she made friends with hundreds and to so many she was like a mother.

She always made you feel like you were the only one in the room. Didn't matter to her how you were dressed or if you had a certain kind of perfume. We were supposed to go to visit Ms. Joyce but we never made that trip. But, have coffee and talk heart to heart well I can say we had many a chat and sip!

I remember rooming with her at a retreat. Me and Ms. Gail and I we both love to eat! Our dream job was to travel to different restaurants being a food critic. Getting paid to eat, but no oysters for me and for her no figs!

I heard her say more than once a girl can dream. And if I am not mistaken she sang on the worship team. She fervently prayed for her children asking us to join in. Cause she knew her God was able to save them from their sin.

I asked her recently if she could do anything what was it that she would do? She replied " Fishing it doesn't matter if its on a boat. "Just give me a little fishing hole."

She thought the hardest thing about being sick was not being able to go places. I think that's because she genuinely loved people: their souls and their faces.

She talked about how blessed she had been. How she had hit the jackpot with her daughters in law. She lived such a contented life , at least that's what I saw. Oh, and those precious grandkids how she loved all of them!

She was beamingly proud of Brandon and Cassie the weekend they were ordained. I am reminded of the widow of Zarephath the way she was sustained. Worship had to be her very favorite thing. She never worried about money clothes or rings.

I would describe her as a content person, not hard to please. Something as simple as a Hallmark movie would put her at ease. Don't get me wrong she had her share of trials ,but you would never have known. By the way she spoke and the way she praised God on the throne.

I already miss my friend as many of you do as well, but for her don't feel sorry. She would want us to rejoice with her as she has her crown now and is having a big party! Pass the Lemon cake...

Love you my friend,
'Til we meet again

“ From the moment Gail came into my life at the young age of 5 I knew there was something special about her! It's not until a free years back she said we were kindred spirits. Her faith was unshakable! She had a scripture to help through every situation and saw hope in situations when there seem to be none! She was my mentor, friend, sister in law, spiritual counselor and so much more. She made me strive to live a life for Christ everyday and when I fall to get right back up and reach for heaven. I thank the Lord you were in my life. Your smiles , hugs, voice, and most of all your sweet heart will be missed beyond words! Love you dearly!

“ I’ll always remember Ms. Gail to have the brightest smile that reflected the Love of Jesus she had in her heart. She would always greet me with “Hey, honey!” every time I saw her, followed by the tightest hug. My sweet friend couldn’t have been blessed with a more precious Mother in Law. Blessings and comfort to you all! Missy

“ I can’t even imagine not having your shoulder to lean on! We have cried together and laughed together! People would even ask if we were sisters!!! What a compliment! I always always enjoyed just being around you....a peace would come over me and I just knew everything was going to be all right! You loved everyone unconditionally....if any one was the “hands & feet” of Christ it was Ms Gail! I will miss you everyday and can’t wait to see you again in His presence!!! Love you my dear dear friend.

“ I'm at a loss for words. I cannot nor do I want to imagine a world without Ms Gail. She was my spiritual mom. So many times, she wiped away my tears. She prayed with me. She pulled me up. She led me back to God. She was a fire, not merely a light. Heaven is celebrating big time!!! I love you Ms Gail. See you soon. Praying for Brandon and Cassie and the family. May The Holy Spirit bring comfort to you all. Love you all.

“ From the moment I met Momma Gail in 2010 she showered me with love. From every prayer she prayed over me to every hug she gave she always poured her whole being into it. Her absence will be noticed but her presence will never be forgotten. What a beautiful legacy of the love of Christ she is leaving.

“ Gail, you were a light of love and joy to all. You weren't the kind of person who preached from a pulpit, but you impacted and ministered to more people than maybe even God could count. ;) We tried so hard to grab that cup of coffee and visit, and I regret not enjoying that final sweet time with you on earth. Your sense of humor, warmth, strength of faith and godly character are monuments to your life. John and I will love and hug on your family and help in any way we can, so just enjoy the everlovin' out of your eternity. Love you, beautiful friend.
