“ Ms Grace was without a doubt one of the sweetest and faith filled ladies I have ever known. I worked with her at the Cathedral Center where she was a most valuable and willing volunteer.
I have no doubt that she was welcomed into Our Lords Kingdom with open arms.
Rest in peace, Mr. Grace.

“ I would like to send my deepest sympathies to Marie Elise, Elena, Chuck and family. She truly adored all of you so much. She loved how all of you would come from near and far to her home, and celebrate special family occasions together. She loved her Cathedral church family as dearly. She was a regular at daily Mass as long as she could drive. She participated in so many of the organizations within the church for years. So many parishioners loved her dearly. I will miss Grace dearly. I know now that God called her back on a day I was to meet my new grandson for the first time in Austin, Texas. The timing for me was so perfect because her terrible loss would be consoled by this new life. It's the circle of life I was experiencing, On our last visit she gave me her final gift. She said, "I love you". I kissed and blessed her, and a small part of me knew it was our final good-bye. I will always treasure the love she shared with me as our two lives came together after my Mom passed away in May of 2009. She was lucky to have me in her final years, but I was blessed to have her after losing my Mom. Grace can never be replaced, and I will never be sorry for giving her my time, love, and affection. I am sure her family I am writing to feel the same. I will join in saying a special rosary for her.

Sincerely,
Nancy Songy

“ Grace was a Lay Carmelite and even though she's been inactive for quite a few years, we never forgot her and prayed for her. Please know the Lay Carmelites are praying for her since we can't do the regular rosary we'd do at the funeral home.

We know she's now interceding for us.

With love and sympathy,
Sister Laura Melancon, O. Carm.

“ Aunt Grace was an inspiration to all who met her. She was such a gentle, kind soul. I loved visiting with her and listening to her beautiful stories. Every Sunday she would bring Aunt Rita and Tee Luke for lunch to the Granger's. We would sit at the round table and enjoy each other's company. Aunt Grace was welcomed into heaven by many we miss and have gone before us. I love you forever sweet girl. Love, Karen Granger
