“ GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

June 21st, 1928

to Luther and Beuna Brooks, was an important date.

Kenneth Robert arrived and said, "Look out world, here I come. There's a lot of important work that has to be done."

I can't say that he was a normal boy, as a general rule but it was quickly understood, he was nobody's fool.

There was a lot of projects in which he became involved. He was always happy to get a problem solved.

He served his country, both on the land and the sea. Then along came Myrtle Theriot, as pretty as could be.

She gave him two beautiful daughters and an enterprising son. As a family, they all worked together, getting things done.

Kenneth didn't know what a stranger was - I'll bet. To him they were only friends that he hadn't met.

He was ready to help, whatever the need was for. He'd buy a full list of groceries or sometimes, a car.

Kenneth and Myrtle are together, now walking those streets of gold. Leaving us with memories, in our hearts we will forever hold.

“ Daddy,

I know that you have missed Mom every single day since she passed away. It gives me the most comfort to know that you are with her again. She would have been proud of the way you held us together. We needed you Daddy more than every after Mom died and you were there for us until your last breath on this earth.

Love, Margie
