

Lorrie Ann "Sissy" Weeks

July 25, 1961 - January 11, 2021

A Private Graveside Service will be held for Ms. Lorrie Ann "Sissy" Weeks on Friday, January 15, 2021, in Greenwood Memorial Park Cemetery in Pineville, Louisiana. Sissy, as she was affectionately known, passed away on Monday, January 11, 2021 at Ochsner University Hospital & Clinics in Lafayette.

Survivors include her brother, Randy Weeks and his wife Michelle Pleasant of Acton, MA; her two nieces, Lauren LaFord and Kaytlin Weeks and her cousin, Donna Alpers.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. AJ Weeks and Mrs. Faye O'Quinn; her brother, Ronnie Weeks and her sister, Sandra Weeks.

A resident of Louisiana for all of her life, Sissy never met a stranger. She was a devout Catholic and she enjoyed to pray her rosary. She loved her cats but her passion in life was spending time with her family and friends. Her smile and contagious laugh will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A heartfelt appreciation is extended by the Weeks family to her caregivers for their compassionate care.

“ Sissy, I met you only once, and based on that one time I can understand why you are so beloved by your friends and neighbors. I've learned so much more about you and your family over the years through your longtime neighbor and mutual friend Theresa, May the peace that surpasses all understanding blanket your family and friends at this time. Rest in peace and may your memory be a blessing to others.
