She began real estate as one of the first female estate agents in Lafayette over 40 years ago and she went on to have a very exciting and successful career.

Beautiful, fun, spirited, strong, resilient, vivacious, full of laughter, lively, dynamic, special, Mary had flair for life and always made a grand entrance whenever she walked into a room.

She loved dancing everywhere--in her kitchen, on a table, in the dancehall or wherever she felt moved. One time, she was so moved that she got out of her car to dance and praise. Soon after, a few new friends (because no one was a stranger to her) stopped to join her.

She was an amazing cook and she loved to feed everyone. She used Ro-Tel in her gumbo and it was phenomenal!

She married Mike Baudoin in 2015, they loved traveling together especially when they went to Paris, Cabo, and Costa Rica.

“ Dear Mike and the entire Dugas, Bordelon & Baudoin families,
Although we did not know Mary for very long and only at church related activities, it did not take long to realize what a wonderful person she was. Ann & I simply loved serving with her as Ministers of Welcome at St. Elizabeth. Whenever we greeted her, it was so obvious that she was caring, interested in you personally and just simply loved people. I'm sure that she will be blessed during her eternal journey and the Good Lord will treat her with very much love.

May God bless all of you.... L. J. & Ann Olivier

“ In the small community of Old Henderson surfaced a dear and beloved friend and a cherished member of the 1960 Cecilia High School graduating class. During those exciting years, Mary Alice (aka Mary or Alyce) always embraced her peers with acceptance and caring and nurturing responses that exceeded, what all of us perceived, was the ultimate presentation of beauty, style, and grace. I recall her dynamic personality and energy as Head Majorette and being embraced by the student body when elected Homecoming Queen of our senior class. Although her popularity exceeded the boundaries of our small community, Mary remained humble and continued to embrace her family of peers. I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge the role and influence that Eric, the love of her life and another cherished member of our class, had upon Mary's choices, not only during those formative years, but later as her husband and the father of their three children.

On a personal note, I have vivid memories of Mary's smooth dancing style at Websters, being the life of the party, her generosity with her excellent homemade meals, and shared experiences as a couple with family and friends throughout the decades of her life to include celebrating our various class reunions.

Throughout the decades of our friendship, I witnessed an individual with inner strength, rooted in her Christian faith, and, regardless of the challenges, she remained competitive, optimistic and confident. With the support of her current husband, Mike, and her immediate family, Mary survived a serious pulmonary condition that surfaced a few years ago. However, when faced with the recent medical issues and her journey in life was obviously challenged, she remained courageous but the complexities that surfaced robbed her soul of every ounce of energy to survive.

I bid farewell to a dear and beloved friend and classmate, who without doubt had unconditional love for her deceased husband, Eric, her children, Jacqueline, Jerri, and Erika, grandchildren, and her present husband, Mike as well as extended stepfamily members.

While acknowledging that Mary crossed the bar much earlier than expected, we pray for her peaceful transition and I offer my condolences to family and friends during this sensitive and emotional time.

Thanks for the memories my dear friend, may you rest in peace.

“ Aunt Mary was an amazing sweet lady! She had a way of making you feel at home and always made you feel special. Classy and sassy is what I would tell her and she would laugh and say yes she was. She never met a stranger and her hugs was amazing.. She will be dearly missed by so many. Rest now aunt Mary and always remember you will never be forgotten! Thank you for making us feel welcome in your home and life.

“ Rest in peace Mrs. Mary. You were an inspiration and a joy filled friend! Always a smile on your face and a warm embrace. May you rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord.

“ I was blessed to work with Mary at Old South Realty. So many phrases come to mind: A ray of sunshine, the life of the party, lived and enjoyed life to the fullest...all these perfectly describe Mary. When she walked into the office every day, the atmosphere brightened immediately. She always had a good word for everyone. And the laughs...oh my gosh! She could ruin your mascara making you laugh until tears ran down your face. Above all, she was one of the kindest and most generous souls I ever met. I'd say rest in peace, but I know she is up there, cooking and laughing and having a great time. Love you, Mary B.

“ I met Aunt Alice only twice, but I fell in love with her from the first moment we were introduced. She was so warm and kind to me, and I immediately felt at ease with her! I wish we had more time, but I know she is smiling in heaven and making others feel welcomed and cared for. My deepest condolences go out to her family and my prayers are with you during this very sad time.

“ Aunt Mary was an Amazing Aunt. She made everything we did fun. I spent a lot of time with her and her family during the summer months when I was in high school. The neighborhood kids loved to spend time at Aunt Mary 's house on Wallace Drive. She was so full of life. I remember her always smiling and happy. Aunt Mary loved her family very much and they loved her too. She will be sadly missed. I feel blessed to have had her in my life. A great Lady, gone in a Heartbeat.

Now she is with my Dad and all her family in Heaven watching over us on Earth.
