He was preceded in death by his father, James Judice; a nephew, Jake Lavin; a niece, Amanda Judice; and a great niece, Magdaline Lowery.

Randy, the oldest of nine children, grew up in Lafayette in a loving family. He was a jovial person right from the start and loved teasing his siblings often, much to their dismay. He was a graduate of Our Lady of Fatima Catholic School where as a young boy he played Offensive Guard for the Warriors. After graduation he went on to USL majoring in Business Administration. Randy worked for the family business at Judice Electric Motor Company for fifty-two years. At just nine years old he began working at Judice Electric, often sneaking into the shop to try and learn the trade of repairing motors. Working alongside his father, his greatest role model, Randy learned the business from the ground up eventually serving as Vice-President. He spent the majority of his career building long-lasting relationships with his customers, who often became his friends.

Randy loved his family, especially his children and grandchildren. When his girls were young, they spent many summers at the beach in Gulf Shores, Alabama, where every day with him was sure to be a laughing, fun-filled adventure. He enjoyed teaching his girls and passing on his immense knowledge about his favorite hobbies. Whether it was catching fish in the pond behind his house, how to shoot straight or engineering the solution to any project they were working on; these were the skills he impressed upon his girls. Over the years, his joy came from spending time with the people he loved. His devotion to his family, particularly his mother, and their Tuesday visits were cherished by both of them. Grabbing a burger at Judice Inn, or simply visiting with friends and family were a few of his favorite pastimes.

Randy was an outdoorsman who loved hunting and fishing. He could often be found at the hunting camp on weekends with his friends, ready for the next dawn or dusk chance to spot a deer. His many hunts with friends and family provided him with happy times and great stories.

He also spent his extra time working on his land, property that once belonged to his great-grandfather. He cherished his memories of working that land as a young boy with his grandfather. The pecan orchard he planted, and crawfish farms were a constant conversation, and a great excuse to take his grandchildren "Riding the Ranger" or John Deere through the fields.

The life he and Matsie shared was a special one, full of the simple pleasures. A football game on the TV, a warm meal on the stove, and sitting on their porch watching the sunsets, is really all it took to make him smile. He could often be heard exclaiming, "I love it out here!" He had the tightest bear hug, loud triple-smack cheek kisses and a boisterous laugh that could be heard for miles around. He will be remembered for his light natured, fun-loving spirit and above all, his kind heart.

The family requests that visitation be observed in Martin & Castille's DOWNTOWN location on Saturday, October 9, from 10:00 AM until time of services.

Memorial contributions can be made in Randy's name to The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society online at www.lls.org <<http://www.lls.org>> or the American Cancer Society online at www.cancer.org <<http://www.cancer.org>>.

“ We are so saddened to learn about Randy's passing. Randy was without a doubt one of the nicest people I ever knew. Even though I went to Cathedral he was always friendly and nice to talk too. He remained so throughout his life, and will be missed greatly by all with whom he came in contact. Our prayers are with his family and friends as I am certain someone of his character is with his Heavenly Father.

God Bless,

“ Dear Matsie, Angelle, Natalie, Nichole, & family,

Our hearts are broken to lose our brother Randy. He surely fought the good fight and is now at peace with our Lord, joyfully reunited with Paw and his many loved ones. Please know of our love and prayers as you go through this very difficult time. May your hearts be comforted by your years of cherished, loving memories. Always be reminded of his laughter and love for all things outdoors. His great spirit and legacy now lives on through each of you.

Randy was a blessed man, father, and grandfather to have the love and care of you Matsie, his three wonderful daughters and precious grandchildren. He is smiling down upon you all for loving him so much and bringing joy to his life.

We are happy that we were able to have a visit with him only a few weeks ago.

Please know that we are here for you always! May God bless you all!

All our love, Clay and Patti
