“ Our prayers go out to the family. When Ronnie & Ann got married, the day before the wedding I went to the Fortier home to help Ann prepare for her honeymoon. Well, I had brought with me needle and thread and I sewed all her underwear so she could not get in it. When they returned she approached me and said "I know you what you did" and we laughed. Ann was a warm and beautiful woman inside and out. Her fight with diabetes was always her main concern, and we attempted to help her with this throughout our friendship. She will be missed! That smiling face and kind remarks. May she RIP!!!

“ So very sorry for your loss. Ann and I had birthdays one day apart and since hers was first, I called her many times to wish her Happy Birthday. We always had plenty to talk about. She had such a shining personality, she was a pleasure to visit with. May your memories comfort you. Jeanette Breaux Fountain

“ During the summer months, Ronnie and I would walk the path at City Park in New Iberia. Quite often we were joined by friends in our morning routine. When we would finish, Ann would be waiting with a fresh pot of coffee. We would sit under the carport and visit for at least an hour, we thought of it as our cool down from exercising. Those days were pleasant and warm. like my memories of Ann and Ronnie.

“ Rachel, Rhonda, Stephenie, (and Eugenie, Steamer, and Peter),

Sad as I am, I am comforted knowing that your mom's suffering has ended and that now, with Ronnie, she is rejoicing in her glorious new life. Remarkably, regardless of what difficult health or other issues your mom faced, she somehow always managed to remain "upbeat" and handle them well.

As my memory serves me, Ann, was my first, non-family childhood friend. And what a friend she was, for 70+ years!!! Very recently we had a nice telephone visit. Little did I know that, that call would be a "parting gift" between us.

I have fond memories of us, as children, playing jacks, pick-up sticks, paper dolls and board games, inside on cold or rainy days. Otherwise, we played Hide n Seek and Red Rover, with whomever we could round up, along with riding our bicycles to the Dodson School playground and to City Park.

During our almost 14 years of living out of state, we saw each other infrequently, but always remained friends. When we returned, our friendship was on "steroids" because now all of our teeedged kids knew each other well, and we shared the journey of parenting teens together.

R, R and S, in signing off, I am left with a few very special memories shared with your parents after returning to NI.

Among those memories are leisurely enjoying your mom's great coffee some weekend mornings, chatting about our kids and grandkids, etc., making delicious homemade fig ice cream, going to the "camp" for some special occasion, enjoying various Krewe dances*** and events, and a particularly enjoyable River Road trip to visit Felicité and Homeplace/Fortier, both plantations built by Your mom's Fortier ancestors, along with touring other notable LA plantations.

Many times both of your parents told me how truly blessed they were to have three very loving, caring and capable daughters.

That final thought leaves me with a smile knowing that your mother lived a "full life" bery well loved and cared for.

Miss Bonnie

“ My Mother was a patient, loving and unselfish woman who always put others first; seeing others happy made her happy. I will cherish our phone conversations we had; always asking, “How’s B&B”. She loved them so much and they would wag their tails when they heard her voice; they loved their Mimi. Mom you are deeply missed. I know you are with dad now living in eternal happiness. Mom I love you. Love Rhonda, Deon and Jackson
